

EMAIL MARKETING AGENCY

Why Full-Service Email Marketing?

Because building and maintaining a business is a full-time job... and so is marketing that business. Frequent contact with your client base is key to growing your company and maintaining strong relationships.

Solutions for Growth is an email marketing agency that takes the business of connecting with customers off your overflowing plate and gives you peace of mind knowing they're in the best possible hands.

We create several different kinds of email messages to give multiple ways to connect with your network. Among these are newsletters featuring articles that present you as an expert in your field, promotions to help drive sales, surveys to gather firsthand customer feedback, and special email tools like SaveLocal with shareable coupons. We also create Social Campaigns that increase your number of likes and engagement on social media platforms like Facebook.

Custom Template

We build our templates around your website design to ensure consistent branding. Using the proper colors, images, and logo will help customers instantly recognize your valuable brand. We include links to social media so customers can share your newsletter and make it the jewel in your marketing crown.

List Management

We track all your contact information to personalize each high-impact newsletter so you make a direct and intimate connection with your customers.

Editorial Calendar

We'll keep track of all upcoming promotions and deadlines so you stay on schedule.

Copywriting

This is the key element that most email marketing companies avoid. Let Solutions for Growth's stable of scribes write the sharpest, most professional copy for your newsletters. We send you a draft for approval and ensure that your copy is expertly presented in every way.

Sending

We track the optimal times to send your emails to ensure you get the best possible open and click rates.
